Dear,

Europol organises the second ARGOS meeting in 2017. This EU wide conference on covert surveillance brings together European subject matter experts from all EU member states.

It is our pleasure to invite you to a meeting that brings together the chairs of the relevant networks (ESG, SENSEE and SCG) to discuss about the future of covert surveillance in the EU, the needs of all the members and the common way forward. Please prepare your vision for the future and your preferred ways of cooperation.

As discussed in our first meeting, we involve, from the start, the regional informal network groups on surveillance.

Additionally, the meeting aims to discuss the needs of all stakeholders, collect the ideas on what the content of the ARGOS conference should be and agree on logistical and financial agreements.

Please confirm your participation by mail to [redacted]. Enclosed you find a draft agenda. Please add any topic that you want to discuss. More details on accommodation and travel arrangements will follow as soon as available.

Sincerely,

[redacted signature]
