

RACE & CLASS

The politics of fear: civil society and the security state

RACE & CLASS

SPECIAL ISSUE

The politics of fear: civil society and the security state

A special issue of Race & Class explores how the 'war on terror' is influencing key institutions of civil society and reshaping race policy, development programmes, the justice system, military strategy, international law, and debate in academia

INCLUDES ARTICLES ON:

• Anti-Muslim racism across Europe – Liz Fekete • The security state and the rule of law – Magnus Hörnqvist • The war on terror and changing development aid priorities – Antonio Tujan, Audrey Gaughran and Howard Mollett • 'Humanitarian intervention' and the rewriting of international law – Justin Conlon • The new McCarthyism in the US academy – Joel Beinin • US technological strategies for 'full spectrum dominance' – Arun Kundhani.
Price: £6.00 / US$9.00 including delivery. Order from the Institute of Race Relations, 2-6 Leeke Street, London WC1X 9HS (payment of £6 by cheque to 'The Institute of Race Relations' or order online at www.irr.org.uk/publication)

To subscribe to Race & Class, at a special introductory rate of £19/US$30.00 for one year (four issues), starting with The politics of fear: civil society and the security state please contact Sage Publications at www.sagepublications.com or phone +44 (0) 7324 8701

Please send mecopy/copies of The politics of fear: civil society and the security state, including surface postage. Add extra £1.50/US$3 for airmail P&P.

I enclose a cheque/postal order made payable to Institute of Race Relations for £ or US$

Please deliver to: Name:

Address:

Postcode:Tel:

Please return this order with payment to: Institute of Race Relations, 2-6 Leeke Street, London WC1X 9HS, UK.

web: www.irr.org.uk email: info@irr.org.uk

