

ALDE public hearing

The impact of aviation security measures from logistics to privacy

2 May 2007, 9.30 am to 1 pm, room ASP 1G2
European Parliament, rue Wiertz, Brussels

Session 1 - ASSESSING THE RISK

Carel W.E. VAN EIJK, Professor of Applied Physics, University of Delft, Netherlands

"Liquid bombs on aircrafts: feasibility, risk assessment and efficacy of the current rules"

Christophe NAUDIN, Director of Sûreté - International, researcher at the Department of Criminal Contemporary Threats, University of Paris II, France

"Aviation and security threats"

Q&A

Session 2 - EVALUATING THE IMPLEMENTATION

Nathalie HERBELLES, Association of European Airlines, Brussels, Belgium

"The implementation of the restrictions on liquids: challenges and consequences"

Claudio BOCCARDO, General Director of "Aeroporti Sistema del Garda S.p.A.", Italy

"The ACI-AEA assessment of impact of the restrictive measures: costs, delays, etc"

Frank O'CONNEL, President of European Travel Retail Council, Brussels

"The impact of security measures on duty-free business"

Q&A

Session 3 - LEGAL ASPECTS

Gottfried HEINRICH

"Are unpublished regulations binding on citizens? The case Heinrich vs Austrian authorities in front of the European Court of Justice"

Q&A

Session 4 - STRATEGY FOR THE FUTURE

Marjeta JAGER, Director "Security, protection of persons, of the assets and the facilities", Directorate-General for Transport and Energy, European Commission

Peter ANDRES, Lufthansa Security Director

Q&A

CONCLUSIONS