Subject : Council Decision on the exchange of information extracted from criminal records
– Manual of Procedure

MANUAL OF PROCEDURE

The Council Decision on the exchange of information extracted from the criminal record aims at facilitating the transmission of information retained in the national criminal records of the Member States of the European Union.

Information will be forwarded using the Form provided for in the Annex to the Council Decision. The competent authority in the Member State should, in filling out the Form for requesting information extracted from the criminal record, take note of the Manual of Procedure. The Manual is intended to be a factual document to assist practitioners in making requests for information extracted from the criminal record of another Member State.

Delegations will find attached in the Annex, the draft Manual of Procedure, consisting of the replies submitted by the Member States and containing practical information for completing their request, as updated by the Member States since the previous issue of the manual (doc. 11060/1/07 REV 1 COPEN 101 EJM 18 EUROJUST 36 + COR 1 +COR 2 REV 1 + COR 3 +COR 4 + COR 5 + COR 6 REV 1 + COR 7).

Do you require the consent of the person concerned in order to release information about their criminal convictions in such cases? ~~Yes~~/ No*

Requests can be accepted in the following languages in addition to the official language(s) of Germany:

English

Any other information about the national law, regulations or practice of Germany which would assist a requesting authority in making a request for information extracted from a criminal record.

Local competence and form of application

Anyone resident outside the Federal Republic of Germany who has reached the age of 14 can make a written application - (no special form is required) - for a (private) certificate of good conduct or a certificate of good conduct (for official purposes). The application can be made with the registration authority direct and should be sent to the following address:

Bundesamt für Justiz

- Bundeszentralregister -

Sachgebiet IV 21

53094 Bonn

Germany

The applicant is required to furnish proof of his/her identity and, if he/she is acting as a legal representative, to furnish proof of his/her authority to represent. The person to whom the application refers may neither be represented by an attorney-in-fact nor by an attorney at law (§ 30 subsection 2 BZRG - Law on the Federal Central Register). The application must contain the full personal details of the person to whom it refers and be signed by him/her personally. The address to which the certificate of good conduct is to be sent is to be named. Personal details and signature must be confirmed officially. Such official confirmation can be provided by a German embassy or consulate, or by a foreign public authority or a notary public. Submission of an officially certified photocopy of official identity papers showing the personal details of the person to whom the application refers will also suffice. The copy is to be signed by the applicant prior to certification. A note is to be made if the name at birth is not the same as the family name.

Charges

The charge for each certificate of good conduct is € 13. Payment can be made by cheque or transfer to the following account of the Bundesamt für Justiz:

Deutsche Bundesbank - Filiale Bonn -

Bank code 380 000 00

Account No.: 380 010 05

IBAN-Nr.: DE24 3800 0000 0038 001005

BIC/swift-Nr.: MARKDEF1380

Purpose: (reference number - if known -, or first and last names of the applicant)

Cheques from European countries must be made out in Euro. Cheques from non-European countries must be made out in Euro and drawn on a German bank.

Cheques from Denmark, the United Kingdom, the Czech Republic and Israel can be made out in the respective domestic currency or in Euro. They must be drawn on a German bank if they are made out in Euro.

In the case of a transfer of the sum in question, the copy of the transfer order is - if possible - to be sent to the registration authority - together with the application for a certificate of good conduct.

The certificate of good conduct will not be issued until receipt of the charge or of proof of payment (§ 7 subsection 2 JVKostO - Cost Ordinance of Justice Agencies).

General information

A (private) certificate of good conduct can only be sent to the applicant personally at his/her private address. A certificate of good conduct that has been applied for official purposes for submission to a German public authority will be sent to the authority in question direct. For this reason, the address of the authority as well as the purpose of use and/or reference number of the recipient authority is to be indicated on an application for a certificate of good conduct for official purposes. Certificates of good conduct are issued in the German language only. The applicant must arrange for any translation required himself/herself. The contents of the certificate of good conduct are based on the provisions of the Law on the Federal Central Register (BZRG). The application form as a Word-document or a PDF-file can be downloaded on and may be used to make an application.

<http://www.bundesjustizamt.de>

Requests can be accepted in the following languages in addition to the official language(s) of Ireland:

Requests may be in English or Irish

Any other information about the national law, regulations or practice of Ireland which would assist a requesting authority in making a request for information extracted from a criminal record.

At the time of ratification of the Council of Europe Convention on Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters (Strasbourg, 1959) Ireland entered a reservation with respect to Article 22. This reservation stated:

“The Government of Ireland will not notify criminal convictions or subsequent measures under Article 22 except insofar as the organisation of its judicial records allows of so doing.”

THE COUNCIL DECISION ALLOWS MEMBER STATES TO MAINTAIN THEIR RESERVATIONS ON ARTICLE 22, BUT REQUIRES THEM TO LIFT THEIR RESERVATIONS ON ARTICLE 13 AT LEAST IN THEIR DEALINGS WITH EACH OTHER.

ARTICLE 2 OF THE COUNCIL DECISION REQUIRES EACH CENTRAL AUTHORITY, WITHOUT DELAY, TO INFORM OTHER CENTRAL AUTHORITIES OF CONVICTIONS AND SUBSEQUENT MEASURES RECORDED AGAINST NATIONALS OF THOSE MEMBER STATES.

ARTICLE 3 ALLOWS A CENTRAL AUTHORITY TO REQUEST INFORMATION, FROM THE CRIMINAL RECORD OF ANOTHER MEMBER STATE. IT ALSO PERMITS AN INDIVIDUAL TO REQUEST INFORMATION ON HIS OR HER OWN CRIMINAL RECORD.

Because the organization of its judicial records does not yet allow Ireland to remove its reservation on Article 22 of the 1959 Convention, Ireland will not be in a position to provide the information referred to in Article 2, nor to respond to requests made under Article 3.

Accordingly, where Ireland does receive a request under Article 3 of the Council Decision it is very likely that the information will not be available. It is possible that partial replies, based on enquiries to An Garda Siochana (National Police Force), could be provided. But these could probably not be certified as representing the full record related to any particular individual. In addition, the deadlines set out for providing the information may be too short.

Any other information about the national law, regulations or practice of the Netherlands which would assist a requesting authority in making a request for information extracted from a criminal record.

Statement of good behaviour

In the Netherlands we work in general with statements of good behaviour for applicants. Every employer can require the submission of a statement of good behaviour. Such a statement can be requested at the local government office of the person concerned and for persons who do not live in the Netherlands a special desk exists in Almelo. Such requests are therefore not submitted directly to the National Criminal Record office. Usually the statement is requested by the applicant, but employers may request such a statement as well (in certain cases the consent of the applicant is required).

Do you require the consent of the person concerned in order to release information about their criminal convictions in such cases? No - with the exception of foreigners (the person concerned)

Information from the criminal records shall be delivered to the authorities of a foreign state only for dealing with criminal matters as provided for in Article 13 of the European Convention on Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters (TrS 30/1981)

[Criminal Records Act (770/1993), Section 4, Paragraph3]

[Criminal Records Act lays down provisions on delivery of information from the criminal records

Criminal Records Act:

Section 6

- (1) A private individual may obtain an extract of his or her own entries in the criminal records for purposes of acquiring a visa, work permit or residence permit, or for an equivalent reason.
- (2) In addition to what has been provided in paragraph (1), a private individual may obtain an extract on his or her own entries in the criminal records for taking on a job which regularly and to a substantial degree involves working with minors and for which an extract, in accordance with the Act on the Investigation of the Criminal History of Persons Working with Children (504/2002), is to be presented to the employer or authority. Such an extract shall contain data on decisions whereby the person has been convicted of an act of sexual indecency, referred to in chapter 17, section 18 or 19, of the Penal Code; a sex offence, referred to in chapter 20; homicide, referred to in chapter 21, section 1; murder, referred to in chapter 21, section 2; killing, referred to in chapter 21, section 3; aggravated assault, referred to in chapter 21, section 6; aggravated robbery, referred to in chapter 31, section 2; or a narcotics offence referred to in chapter 50 of the Penal Code. The extract shall contain data also on decisions whereby a person has been convicted of an equivalent offence under the legislation previously in force. The extract shall be delivered free of charge.
- (3) When requesting an extract referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2), the person shall indicate the purpose for which it is to be used. An extract referred to in paragraph (2) may only be delivered to the person concerned.
- (4) What has been provided for the protection of personal data applies to a person's right to inspect his or her personal data in the criminal records. Furthermore, a person on whom there are entries in the criminal records is entitled to know, on request, to whom and for what purpose data about him or her has been delivered from the computerised records in the course of the past year. A person competent to sign the name of a corporation is similarly entitled, irrespective of the method by which the records are kept, to inspect and obtain information on behalf of the corporation, and the right to obtain an extract from the records regarding the corporation.

Swedish comments on manual on procedure

General Remarks: The Swedish Government is currently working on the necessary changes for the implementation of the Council Decision 2005/876/JHA of 21 November 2005 on the exchange of information extracted from the criminal record. Until the implementation is completed, which is expected in the near future, the existing judicial cooperation in this area, i.e. the mechanisms according to articles 13 and 22 of the European Convention on Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters of 20 April 1959, will continue.

Notes:

- 1. In the UK, there are different jurisdictions across England & Wales, Northern Ireland and Scotland. Some of the practical effects of the separate jurisdictions are: different offences; differing sanctions; and separate criminal history systems with different weeding policies.
- 2. On 31 March 2006, England and Wales introduced changes to the way convictions are managed. These changes will not affect the disclosure of convictions for the purposes of criminal proceedings or for their use by competent administrative authorities.
- 3. The Scottish Criminal Record Office and the Police Service of Northern Ireland are to be designated as Central Authorities for sending out information about EU nationals convicted in Scottish and Northern Irish courts and for replying to requests for information from EU Member States.
- 4. With regard to Employment Vetting:
 - In England and Wales, employment vetting checks are conducted by authorised organisations (registered bodies). These are undertaken by the Criminal Records Bureau. Details including costs can be found at: www.crb.gov.uk.
 - In Scotland, employment vetting checks are undertaken by Disclosure Scotland. Details including costs can be found at www.disclosurescotland.co.uk.
 - In Northern Ireland the employment vetting process is currently undertaken by the Police Service of Northern Ireland.
