

Statewatch

monitoring the state and civil liberties in the European Union

Statewatch covers -

- Policing and Europol
- Security and intelligence agencies
- The Schengen acquis
- European databases: SIS, CIS, Europol, Eurodac
- Prisons
- Military
- Immigration and asylum
- Racism and fascism
- Openness and secrecy in the EU
- EU-FBI surveillance system
- Northern Ireland
- Civil liberties
- The law and the European Courts
- The Council of Justice and Home Affairs Ministers in the EU

Statewatch database

The database contains over 25,000 entries, with news, features, books, pamphlets and reports on the state, civil liberties and justice and home affairs in the UK and the European Union. This free access database is an archive of Statewatch's work since 1991. The contents of our regular subscriber bulletin, published 6 times a year, are not put on the database until a year after publication. To subscribe to the bulletin or to request a free sample copy, click Free sample issue/subscribe

- Search Statewatch database SEARCH

Statewatch index

- Current news stories:

NEW: "Secret Europe": Commission proposal for a regulation on public access to documents (full text plus earlier draft leaked to Statewatch: draft regulation on public access to documents being discussed by the European Commission would introduce new ban on openness Secret Europe updated 22.2.00

1\) EU secrecy proposals: background and full-texts documents Coverage up to November 1999, for latest news see "Secret Europe" above

2\) EU-FBI telecommunications surveillance system: draft proposals to extend system to the Internet and satellite phones

3\) EU-FBI telecommunications surveillance system: origin and background

3) EU-FBI telecommunications surveillance system: origin and background

- New pamphlet: "On Globalisation of Control: Towards an Integrated Surveillance System in Europe" by Thomas Mathiesen. Analyses EU databases, use and exchange of data and surveillance - this publication complements critiques of globalisation/globalism by looking at the potential of a "global state" Place order
- Statewatch publications Publications
- New items on database New items - updated, September 1999
- Statewatch bulletin, current issue, vol 9 no 6 (November-December 1999) Contents
- Statewatch European Monitor - new issue, vol 1 no 2 Contents

©Statewatch. Material in the database may be used provided the source is acknowledged.

Statewatch, PO Box 1516, London N16 0EW, UK. Tel: + 44 (0)208 802 1882 Fax: + 44 (0)208 880 1727

Contributions to the database and bulletin are welcomed: office@statewatch.org

Statewatch pages are hosted by Poptel