PROMOTION OF CONTROL OF ARMS EXPORTS AND THE PRINCIPLES AND CRITERIA OF COMMON POSITION 2008/944/CFSP AMONG THIRD COUNTRIES
Croatia, Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia and Montenegro Prague, 16-20 January 2012	EU and Czech Republic in implementation of Council Decision 2009/1012/CFSP	Host country: Czech Republic Main issues addressed were the Czech arms export control system; its licensing process and the interagency cooperation; the interagency cooperation in the end-use assessment and internal consultation mechanisms within specific governmental bodies and the post-licence control system (customs and on spot checks). Between sessions case studies were also addressed. One particular case study introduced a role playing scenario focussing on the issue of interagency cooperation.
Montenegro Podgorica, 6 – 7 March 2013	Individual assistance workshop / legal review in implementation Council Decision 2012/711/CFSP	On request of the authorities of Montenegro, the individual assistance workshop enabled relevant Montenegrin officials assisted by EU experts to review the latest Montenegrin draft law on arms trade control. The workshop was preceded by a remote in-depth comprehensive review so that the most relevant and important elements could be appropriately addressed during the workshop. All in all, the individual assistance workshop provided the opportunity for Montenegro to further understand the EU standards, to draw on best practices applied in the EU, to assess the practical feasibility and enforceability of specific provisions and to tangibly strengthen its alignment on Common Position 2008/944/CFSP.

Seminar " Supporting the arms trade treaty negotiations: Options for discussions", Geneva, 28 February–1 March 2013	EU in implementation of Council Decision 2013/43/CFSP	The seminar discussed concrete and specific text proposals for moving towards consensus on particular elements of the draft arms trade treaty based on the draft achieved by the July 2012 diplomatic conference. It accordingly paid specific attention to issues relating to the scope of items and activities to be controlled, the prohibition of certain arms transfers and national assessment criteria, the reporting required under the Treaty and its application together with other possibly relevant international agreements. The seminar was intended to provide for an additional platform for discussion and exchange of view in order to facilitate forthcoming negotiations at the March 2013 final diplomatic conference.
Seminar "Implementing the arms trade treaty: next steps" Geneva, 17-18 June 2013	EU in implementation of Council Decision 2013/43/CFSP	The seminar discussed concrete challenges relating to the entry into force of the ATT and ways to support its early entry into force and effective implementation. It paid specific attention to international assistance needed to support such an effective implementation. In this regard, the seminar enabled to take stock of the initiatives already envisioned in terms of international assistance and implementation support and to further approach their desirable coordination at all relevant levels (national, regional organizations, UN-related, NGO). The seminar also discussed lessons learned from already existing assistance activities in the field of strategic trade controls and the ways in which they could be built upon and utilized by ATT-related efforts.
