DRAFTCOUNCIL DECISION*of

concerning the notification of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland of its wish to take part in some of the provisions of the Schengen acquis which are contained in acts of the Union in the field of police cooperation and judicial cooperation in criminal matters and amending Council Decisions 2000/365/EC and 2004/926/EC

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Protocol (No 36) on transitional provisions (hereinafter "Protocol 36") annexed to the Treaties, and in particular to Article 10(5) thereof,

Having regard the Protocol (No 19) on the Schengen acquis integrated into the framework of the European Union (hereinafter "the Schengen Protocol") annexed to the Treaties, and in particular to Article 4 thereof,

Having regard to the notification, under Article 10(4), first subparagraph, of Protocol 36, by the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (hereinafter "the United Kingdom "), by its letter to the President of the Council of 24 July 2013,

Having regard to the notification, under Article 10(5), first sentence, of Protocol 36 and under Article 4 of the Schengen Protocol, by the Government of the United Kingdom, by its letter to the President of the Council of [...] 2014, of its wish to take part in some of the provisions of the Schengen acquis which are contained in acts of the Union in the field of police cooperation and judicial cooperation in criminal matters,

Whereas,

- (1) Article 10(4) of Protocol 36 allowed the United Kingdom, at the latest six months before the expiry of the five year transitional period referred to in paragraph 3 of Article 10 of Protocol 36, to notify to the Council that it does not accept, with respect to acts of the Union in the field of police cooperation and judicial cooperation in criminal matters which had been adopted before the entry into force of the Treaty of Lisbon, the powers of the Commission and of the Court of Justice as referred to in Article 10(1) of Protocol 36.
- (2) By letter to the President of the Council of 24 July 2013, the United Kingdom made use of the above possibility through notifying that it did not accept the said powers of the Commission and of the Court of Justice, with the consequence that the relevant acts in the field of police cooperation and judicial cooperation in criminal matters would cease to apply to the United Kingdom on 1 December 2014.
- (3) Article 10(5) of Protocol 36 allows the United Kingdom to notify of its wish to participate in the above acts, including those acts which are part of the Schengen acquis, in which case the relevant provisions of the Schengen Protocol shall apply.
- (4) By letter to the President of the Council of ... 2014, the United Kingdom made use of this possibility by notifying of its wish to participate in some of the provisions of the Schengen acquis which are contained in acts of the Union in the field of police cooperation and judicial cooperation in criminal matters to which it was already taking part in accordance with Council Decision 2000/365/EC of 29 May 2000 concerning the request of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to take part in some of the provisions of the Schengen *acquis*¹ (hereinafter "Decision 2000/365/EC"), Council Decision 2004/926/EC of 22 December 2004 on the putting into effect of parts of the Schengen acquis by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland² (hereinafter "Decision 2004/926/EC") and Article 5(1) of the Schengen Protocol.

- (5) It is therefore necessary to identify the acts and provisions in the field of police cooperation and judicial cooperation in criminal matters which are part of the Schengen acquis to which the United Kingdom will continue to participate following the above notification of its wish to do so and therefore to amend Decision 2000/365/EC and Decision 2004/926/EC.
- (6) Decision 2000/365/EC and Decision 2004/926/EC, as amended, will thus continue to apply, in particular concerning those provisions of the Schengen acquis to which the United Kingdom was authorised to take part and which are not acts and provisions in the field of police cooperation and judicial cooperation in criminal matters as referred to in Article 10(1) of Protocol 36.
- (7) Likewise, the United Kingdom will continue to participate to those acts and provisions of the Schengen acquis to which it was authorised to take part, which although they are acts and provisions in the field of police cooperation and judicial cooperation in criminal matters adopted before the entry into force of the Treaty of Lisbon, have been amended by an act, applicable to the United Kingdom, adopted after the said entry into force and therefore fall under Article 10(2) of Protocol 36.

This is the case with regard to the Decision on the Schengen Evaluation Mechanism,³ which was amended by Regulation (EU) No 1053/2013,⁴ Articles 48 to 53 of the 1990 Schengen Convention, as well as the Convention of 2000 on mutual assistance in criminal matters between the EU Member States,⁵ and its Protocol,⁶ which were amended by Directive 2014/.../EU,⁷ and the Agreement of 2008 with Switzerland on its association with the ⁴ Council Regulation (EU) No 1053/2013 of 7 October 2013 establishing an evaluation and monitoring mechanism to verify the application of the Schengen acquis and repealing the Decision of the Executive Committee of 16 September 1998 setting up a Standing Committee on the evaluation and implementation of Schengen, OJ L 295, 6.11.2013, p. 27.

- (8) As recalled in Decision 2000/365/EC, the United Kingdom has a special position in respect of matters covered by Title V of Part Three of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (hereinafter "TFEU"), as recognised in the Schengen Protocol, in the Protocol (No 20) on the application of certain aspects of Article 26 of the TFEU to the United Kingdom and to Ireland (hereinafter "Protocol 20") and in the Protocol (No 21) on the position of the United Kingdom and Ireland in respect of the area of Freedom, Security and Justice (hereinafter "Protocol 21"), annexed to the Treaties, and because of this special position, the Schengen Protocol provides for the possibility of the United Kingdom to participate in some of the provisions of the Schengen acquis.
- (9) In accordance with Article 10(5), last sentence, of Protocol 36, the participation of the United Kingdom to some of the provisions of the Schengen acquis which are contained in acts of the Union in the field of police cooperation and judicial cooperation in criminal matters as provided in this decision re-establishes the widest possible measure of participation of the United Kingdom in the Schengen acquis of the Union falling within in the area of freedom, security and justice without seriously affecting the practical operability of the various parts thereof, while respecting their coherence.
- (10) In addition, as recalled in Decision 2000/365/EC, the Schengen acquis was conceived and functions as a coherent ensemble which has to be fully accepted and applied by all States supporting the principle of the abolition of checks on persons at their common borders.

⁸ Council Decision 2008/149/EC of 28 January 2008 on the conclusion, on behalf of the European Union, of the Agreement between the European Union, the European Community and the Swiss Confederation on the Swiss Confederation's association with the implementation, application and development of the Schengen acquis, OJ L 53, 27.2.2008, p. 52.

- (11) In view of the specific role entrusted to the Council by the Schengen Protocol when it comes to agreeing, by unanimity, on new participants into the Schengen acquis, as well as the high level of mutual trust between the Member States which is required when examining that the preconditions for the implementation of the provisions on the Schengen Information System have been fulfilled and when taking the subsequent decision by which those provisions will be put into effect for the United Kingdom, the implementing power to adopt the decisions, under Articles 5(1) and 6(1) of Decision 2000/365/EC, whereby such acquis will be applied to the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man and the relevant acquis on the Schengen Information System will be put into effect for the United Kingdom should be conferred on the Council. The Council should act with the unanimity of its members referred to in Article 1 of the Schengen Protocol and of the representative of the Government of the United Kingdom.
