(G) THE ACP-EU MIGRATION DIALOGUE

The ACP-EU Migration Dialogue was launched in June 2010 through a Joint Declaration of the ACP-EU Joint Council. The dialogue is based on Article 13 of the Cotonou Agreement. In May 2011 it was decided to further deepen the dialogue, focusing in particular on the subjects of remittances, visa and readmission, with the specific aim to strengthen the operational aspects of ACP-EU cooperation on these topics.

A series of expert meetings took place to this effect, both at expert and Senior Official / Ambassador level. A joint report including recommendations on remittances, visas and readmission was adopted in June 2012 at the ACP-EU Joint Council of Vanuatu. Joint Visa subgroup meeting, technical workshop on return and readmission and experts' seminar on trafficking in human beings and smuggling of migrants took place in 2014. This Process will contribute to the implementation of the Valetta Action Plan adopted at the EU-Africa Summit on Migration on 11-12 November 2015, in particular in the areas of return and readmission, visas, remittances, and smuggling of migrants and trafficking in human beings.

(I) THE VALLETTA SUMMIT

The Valletta Summit enabled African and EU leaders to establish a frank dialogue and the framework for cooperating on migration including the principles, the language and a comprehensive action plan. Leaders agreed:

1. To respond decisively to the sharp increase in flows of refugees, asylum seekers and irregular migrants and together manage migration flows in all their aspects, in full respect of sovereignty and humanity principles.
2. To deal with migration in a comprehensive, balanced and fair way with actions taking place in parallel on the following five key clusters:
 - Development benefits of migration and addressing root causes
 - Legal migration and mobility
 - International protection and asylum
 - Prevention of and fight against migrant smuggling
 - Making progress on return arrangements and readmission agreements

Leaders also committed to implement an ambitious action plan, which included more than ninety actions and 16 priority actions to be launched in 2016. Implementing this plan is a joint commitment and a responsibility of EU Member States, 35 African countries as well as African and EU Institutions. Since the Summit partners have focussed work on the identification and launching of actions to be implemented at country and regional level in the comprehensive and balanced approach agreed at the Summit. Some of those actions are supported by the EU Emergency Trust Fund for Africa.

Part 2 – The bilateral dialogues

(A) TURKEY

Turkey

In 2008 the Council adopted a revised Accession Partnership with Turkey. On 16 December 2013 the EU and Turkey signed a readmission agreement and launched a visa liberalisation dialogue. The Commission adopted the first report on the implementation of the Visa liberalisation roadmap on 20 October 2014. The readmission agreement entered into force on 1 October 2014. Regarding the readmission of third country nationals, the relevant provisions entered into force on 1 June 2016, after the publication of the third progress report. Procedurally, all conditions for the applications of the readmission agreement in full, are in place and all Member states can now submit readmission applications. Technical arrangements for the management of readmission requests are in place and further being developed.

On 29 November 2015 EU and Turkey agreed to cooperation on the Joint Action Plan.

The EU and Turkey launched at the last EU-Turkey Summit on 29 November 2016 an ambitious Action Plan on Migration in order to step up cooperation for the support of Syrian refugees under temporary protection and their host communities in Turkey and to strengthen cooperation to prevent irregular migration flows to the EU.

The Commission has issued four progress reports on the implementation of the VLAP, the fourth report was issued on 18 December 2015. The fourth report concluded that Georgia has successfully met all benchmarks under the VLAP. Subsequently, on 9 March 2016, the European Commission proposed to the Council and the European Parliament to lift visa requirements for the citizens of Georgia by transferring Georgia to the list of countries whose citizens can travel without a visa to the Schengen area.

Republic of Moldova

The EU-Republic of Moldova (hereinafter Moldova) Association Agreement, including a Deep and Comprehensive Free Trade Area was signed on 27 June 2014, thus succeeding the PCA of 1994. The agreement has been provisionally implemented since September 2014. Moldova and all EU Member States have now ratified the agreement and the procedures for finalising the entry into force are expected to be finalised by July 2016.

The EU-Moldova visa facilitation and readmission agreements entered into force in January 2008. An amended visa facilitation agreement entered into force in July 2013. A Mobility Partnership was signed in June 2008.

In June 2010 a visa dialogue was opened, examining conditions for visa-free travel of Moldovan citizens to the EU. Following the Commission's proposal to amend Visa Regulation 539/2001 of 27 November 2013, Moldova was granted visa-free travel to the Schengen area on 28 April 2014. According to figures provided by Moldova, from April 2014 to February 2016 more than 500.000 Moldovans travelled visa-free to the Schengen area. The visa-free regime has been smoothly implemented, with very low numbers of infractions or entry refusals.

Following the completing of the visa liberalisation process, in the framework of the new ENP, Moldova is pursuing the convergence of its border management with the requirements of the Schengen Catalogue and Schengen Borders Code, and it would like to start cooperation with the EUROSUR system. Additionally, Moldova is seeking to reinforce its cooperation with EASO and Frontex and benefit from capacity building and training.

Moldova is seeking to become a pilot country for initiatives of the European Agenda on Migration, namely fostering legal and labour migration channels to the EU. This is in line with the need to rebalance the GAMM priority areas in the Mobility Partnership towards legal migration and migrant centric projects, namely through circular and seasonal migration schemes to the EU.

Ukraine

The PCA entered into force in 1998. Negotiations on an EU-Ukraine Association Agreement started in September 2008 and initialled in 2012. Ukraine and the EU parliament simultaneously ratified the economic and political parts of the Association Agreement that will on 16 September 2014. Economic integration is postponed until the end of 2015. The Readmission and Visa Facilitation agreements were concluded in 2008. An amended version of the Visa Facilitation agreement with Ukraine entered into force in July 2013.

In 2008 a visa dialogue was opened, examining conditions for visa-free travel of Ukrainian citizens to the EU. A VLAP was endorsed by the Council on 10 November 2010 and presented by the EU to Ukraine at the EU-Ukraine Summit on 22 November 2010. The sixth and final progress report, which was adopted on 18 December 2015, concluded that based on the commitments taken by the Ukrainian leadership, all the measures identified in the fifth progress report had been taken by Ukraine and that all the benchmarks of the VLAP had been met. On 20 April, EU Commission has issued its legislative proposal today to transfer Ukraine to the list of visa-free countries. The proposal has been transmitted to the Council and the EU Parliament. The Council started its work on the dossier on 11 May in the Visa Working Party. On 26 May the proposal was presented in the LIBE Committee.

Belarus

An EU migration mission visited Belarus in 2009. On 28 February 2011 the Council authorised the Commission to open negotiations on visa facilitation and readmission agreements with Belarus. The Commission submitted a formal invitation to the Belarusian authorities in June 2011 which was accepted in January 2014. The first technical negotiations took place in Minsk in June 2014, the second round in November 2014 in Brussels and the last round in March 2015 in Minsk. The results were encouraging, but progress was stalled as five MS voiced concerns regarding the security of the Belarussian diplomatic passports. The Commission offered to Belarus in May 2015 expert advice on security standards for diplomatic passports, and Belarus confirmed its interest only in February 2016. In March 2016 COM reiterate its invitation to start technical consultations. Belarus claims it cannot upgrade its passports without EU's financial assistance.

Belarus and the EU agreed on 1 June 2015 on the political declaration for a Mobility Partnership, which is not yet signed due to postponing on the Belarus side. Belarus is expecting EU financial and technical assistance for the development of biometric ID documents, for the digitalisation of the civil registry and for the implementation of the future Readmission agreement. The draft Annex of project priorities was approved by the Council in November 2015 and it is still under consideration by Belarus.

Belarus has indicated that it would like to reinforce cooperation with EU agencies Europol, EASO, Cefpol and Frontex, and if possible sign cooperation agreements with them.

(D) RUSSIA

Russia

The EU-Russia PCA came into force in 1997. Ministerial meetings for Freedom, Security and Justice area (PPC) were organised regularly until the Ukraine crisis. The Visa Facilitation and Readmission Agreements entered into force on 1 June 2007. On 11 April 2011 the Council adopted the mandate for the renegotiation of the Visa Facilitation Agreement. The Visa Dialogue was launched in 2007 and in this context, on 15 December 2011, the Parties agreed on a list of Common Steps which would need to be implemented before the talks on EU-Russia visa waiver agreement might be launched. In March 2014, in the context of the crisis in Ukraine, the EU decided to suspend bilateral talks with the Russian Federation on visa matters (Visa dialogue and amended VFA). Meetings under the Joint Visa Facilitation Committee and Joint Readmission Committee are continuing.

In May 2011 Russia and EU launched a Dialogue on Migration. The Dialogue focuses through experts' discussions and field visits on legal migration, migration and development, asylum and other forms of international protection, as well as on addressing irregular migration and trafficking in human beings. In the context of the crisis with Ukraine, the migration dialogue is continuing only at expert level, but without a work programme for 2015-2016. The Russian side has agreed that at this stage no senior official meetings of the migration dialogue will be held.

EU and Russia have established Senior Officials Meeting on JLS matters which should meet once a year and should constitute the bridge between experts level discussion and political contacts (JLS PPC). Meetings have been discontinued following the start of the Ukraine crisis.

China

The EU-China comprehensive strategic partnership came into force in 2003. China signed an Approved Destination Status Agreement in 2004, facilitating the entry of Chinese tourists into EU Member States and including provisions on readmission. Formal negotiation of an EU readmission agreement, based on 2002 negotiating directives, has not started yet. Negotiation of a PCA, including an article on readmission and visa cooperation, started in 2007.

At the 14th EU-China Summit in February 2012 both sides agreed to explore the possibilities of facilitating mobility for Chinese and EU citizens, and strengthen cooperation on illegal immigration, as well as to pay special attention to the question of mutual visa exemption for holders of diplomatic passports. The 15th EU-China Summit reiterated these objectives, while calling for the launch an EU-China High Level Dialogue on Migration and Mobility.

Part 3 - The global processes

GLOBAL FORUM FOR MIGRATION AND DEVELOPMENT

The GFMD is an initiative of the UN Member States to address the migration and development nexus in practical and action-oriented ways. It is an informal, non-binding, voluntary and government-led process.

The process emerged after the UN High-level Dialogue on International Migration and Development on 14-15 September 2006. The second High-level Dialogue on 3-4 October 2013 confirmed the GFMD as a valuable forum for holding frank and open discussions, which has helped to build trust among participating stakeholders.

The 8th GFMD Summit came immediately after the adoption of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, which includes migration as a recognised development enabler. During Turkey Chairmanship, an important feature was the insertion of forced displacement and refugees on the agenda, not the least due to the Syrian refugee crisis.

The current Chair, Bangladesh, 2016, will be followed by jointly Germany and Morocco (2017-2018)

UNITED NATIONS

The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on 25 September 2015 recognizes that migration contributes to circular growth and development. It calls on UN Member States to increase international cooperation by facilitating orderly, safe, regular and responsible migration and mobility of people. In this respect, the EU counts on a long-standing strategic partnership with the UN. The EU welcomes and will strongly support the forthcoming UN events aimed at addressing the large movements of migrants and refugees.
