OUTCOME OF PROCEEDINGS

From: High Level Working Group on Asylum and Migration (HLWG)
On: 13 March 2017
To: Delegations
Subject: Summary of discussions

1. Partnership Framework

The Commission and EEAS provided information on the outcome of the meeting of the European Council on 9-10 March 2017 with respect to the external aspects of migration, including on the third progress report on the implementation of the Partnership Framework (6914/17 + ADD 1). The Group had a discussion on this subject.

The Presidency de-briefed on the state-of-play of the discussions concerning the EU External Investment Plan.

The Chair concluded that this subject will be further addressed at the next HLWG meeting.

2. Follow-up to the Valletta Summit

The Chair, EEAS and the Commission provided information on the outcome of the Senior Officials Meeting (SOM) held in Malta on 8-9 February 2017. The Group had an exchange of views on the results of the SOM and on next steps.

BE presented its priorities for the Chairmanship of the Rabat Process.

3. Budapest Process

The Chair, HU and the Commission provided information on the outcome of the consultation meeting of the Budapest Process, held in Istanbul on 2 March 2017.

The Group had an exchange of views on possible next steps, particularly on the proposal of the Chair of the Budapest Process (Turkey) for a Ministerial Conference in 2018.

The Chair invited delegations to send written comments by Friday 17 March 2017.

4. Implementation of the Global Approach to Migration and Mobility

The Commission provided information on the state of play of dialogues and processes under the GAMM (the GAMM update is annexed to this Note).

Specific information was provided by Commission/EEAS on the following items:

- Joint HOME/EEAS/DEVCO technical visit to Iran to prepare the launch of a comprehensive migration dialogue, held in Teheran on 19-21 February 2017.
- Migration related issues in the EU-Bangladesh Diplomatic Consultations (Brussels, 15 February 2017).
- Outcome of the EU-Pakistan Joint Readmission Committee, held in Brussels on 28 February 2017.

(G) THE ACP-EU MIGRATION DIALOGUE

The ACP-EU Migration Dialogue was launched in June 2010 through a Joint Declaration of the ACP-EU Joint Council. The dialogue is based on Article 13 of the Cotonou Agreement. In May 2011 it was decided to further deepen the dialogue, focusing in particular on the subjects of remittances, visa and readmission, with the specific aim to strengthen the operational aspects of ACP-EU cooperation on these topics.

A series of expert meetings took place to this effect, both at expert and Senior Official / Ambassador level. A joint report including recommendations on remittances, visas and readmission was adopted in June 2012 at the ACP-EU Joint Council of Vanuatu. Joint Visa subgroup meeting, technical workshop on return and readmission and experts' seminar on trafficking in human beings and smuggling of migrants took place in 2014. This Process will contribute to the implementation of the Valetta Action Plan adopted at the EU-Africa Summit on Migration on 11-12 November 2015, in particular in the areas of return and readmission, visas, remittances, and smuggling of migrants and trafficking in human beings.

Part 2 – The bilateral dialogues

(A) TURKEY

Turkey

In 2008 the Council adopted a revised Accession Partnership with Turkey. On 16 December 2013 the EU and Turkey signed a readmission agreement and launched a visa liberalisation dialogue. The Commission adopted the first report on the implementation of the Visa liberalisation roadmap on 20 October 2014. Turkey continued to develop its administrative capacity to implement the EU-Turkey readmission agreement, which entered into force for Turkish nationals in October 2014. Implementation of the agreement for Turkish nationals remained nevertheless unsatisfactory as the provisions of the agreement were not observed in a systematic and coherent manner by all Turkish diplomatic missions in the EU. Regarding the readmission of third country nationals, the relevant provisions entered into force on 1 June 2016, after the publication of the third progress report, however, no progress has been recorded in the implementation of the third-country nationals provisions. The Turkish Council of Ministers has not yet taken the decisions authorising the application of these provisions.

- The EU and Turkey launched at the last EU-Turkey Summit on 29 November 2015 an ambitious Action Plan on Migration in order to step up cooperation for the support of Syrian refugees under temporary protection and their host communities in Turkey and to strengthen cooperation to prevent irregular migration flows to the EU.

Armenia
EU relations with Armenia are governed by the Partnership and Cooperation Agreement (PCA), which entered into force in 1999. In July 2010, the EU and Armenia launched negotiations on a future EU-Armenia Association Agreement to succeed the PCA. Eventually, Armenia decided not to sign an Association Agreement and joined the Eurasian Economic Union in January 2015. After a joint scoping exercise, negotiations on a new framework agreement restarted in December 2015. The negotiations on the Comprehensive and Enhanced Partnership Agreement were successfully concluded in February 2017.
A Mobility Partnership was signed on 27 October 2011. The Visa Facilitation Agreement was signed on 17 December 2012 and the Readmission Agreement on 19 April 2013. Both agreements entered into force on 1 January 2014.

Azerbaijan

EU relations with Azerbaijan are governed by the EU-Azerbaijan PCA which entered into force in 1999. In July 2010 the EU and Azerbaijan started negotiating an Association Agreement to succeed the PCA but the process was eventually abandoned. Mid-2016, after a period of 1,5 year with only little cooperation and dialogue between the EU and Azerbaijan due to an EP resolution condemning the human rights situation in Azerbaijan, a new process to replace the old PCA with a new framework agreement was launched. The Council provided a mandate by the end of 2016 and the negotiations were formally started in February 2017.

A Mobility Partnership with Azerbaijan was signed on 5 December 2013. A first High-Level Meeting took place on 23 February 2017.

The Visa Facilitation Agreement was signed in the margins of the Vilnius Summit of the Eastern Partnership, on 28 November 2013. The Readmission Agreement was signed on 28 February 2014. Both agreements entered into force on 1 September 2014.

Georgia

The EU - Georgia Association Agreement and the Deep and Comprehensive Trade Agreement, which succeed the PCA of 1999, were signed on 26 June 2014 in Brussels and entered into force in July 2016.

The Mobility Partnership between the European Union and Georgia was signed in November 2009. Readmission and Visa Facilitation Agreements entered into force on 1st March 2011.

- Georgia has successfully implemented the Visa Liberalisation Action Plan (VLAP). The Commission in March 2016 tabled a proposal to lift visa requirements for the citizens of Georgia by transferring Georgia to the list of countries whose citizens can travel without a visa to the Schengen area. The proposal was adopted by the Council on 27 February 2017 and the Regulation was published in the* Official Journal on 8 March 2017. Visa Liberalisation for Georgia is expected to enter into force on 28 March 2017

Republic of Moldova

The EU-Republic of Moldova (hereinafter Moldova) Association Agreement, including a Deep and Comprehensive Free Trade Area, was signed on 27 June 2014, thus superseding the PCA of 1994. It was provisionally implemented since September 2014, and entered fully into force on 1 July 2016 (following ratification by Moldova and all EU Member States).

The EU-Moldova Visa Facilitation Agreement and Readmission Agreement entered into force in January 2008. An amended Visa Facilitation Agreement entered into force in July 2013. A Mobility Partnership was signed in June 2008.

In June 2010 a visa dialogue was opened, examining conditions for visa-free travel of Moldovan citizens to the EU. Following the Commission's proposal to amend Visa Regulation 539/2001 of 27 November 2013, Moldova was granted visa-free travel to the Schengen area on 28 April 2014. According to figures provided by Frontex and Moldova, from April 2014 to November 2016 more than 850.000 Moldovans travelled visa-free to the Schengen area. The visa-free regime has been smoothly implemented, with very low numbers of infractions or entry refusals.

Following the completion of the visa liberalisation process, in the framework of the new ENP, Moldova is pursuing the convergence of its border management with the requirements of the Schengen Catalogue and Schengen Borders Code. Additionally, Moldova is cooperating with EASO and Frontex and benefits from capacity building and training.

Moldova is seeking to become a pilot country for initiatives of the European Agenda on Migration, namely fostering legal and labour migration channels to the EU. This is in line with the need to rebalance the GAMM priority areas in the Mobility Partnership towards legal migration and migrant centric projects, namely through circular and seasonal migration schemes to the EU.

Ukraine

The PCA entered into force in 1998. Negotiations on an EU-Ukraine Association Agreement started in September 2008 and initialled in 2012. Ukraine and the EU parliament simultaneously ratified the economic and political parts of the Association Agreement that will on 16 September 2014. Economic integration is postponed until the end of 2015. The Readmission and Visa Facilitation agreements were concluded in 2008. An amended version of the Visa Facilitation agreement with Ukraine entered into force in July 2013.

In 2008 a visa dialogue was opened, examining conditions for visa-free travel of Ukrainian citizens to the EU. A VLAP was endorsed by the Council on 10 November 2010 and presented by the EU to Ukraine at the EU-Ukraine Summit on 22 November 2010. The sixth and final progress report, which was adopted on 18 December 2015, concluded that based on the commitments taken by the Ukrainian leadership, all the measures identified in the fifth progress report had been taken by Ukraine and that all the benchmarks of the VLAP had been met. On 20 April, EU Commission has issued its legislative proposal today to transfer Ukraine to the list of visa-free countries. The proposal has been transmitted to the Council and the EU Parliament. The Council started its work on the dossier on 11 May in the Visa Working Party. On 26 May the proposal was presented in the LIBE Committee.

On 26 September the LIBE Committee voted in favour of the visa- free proposal for Ukraine. Despite the fact that Ukraine fulfilled all benchmarks as set by the Visa Liberalisation Action Plan, the Council decided to postpone decisions on this file until the revised suspension mechanism is adopted. Discussions between the co-legislators are still ongoing. On 4 May, the Commission proposed to revise the existing suspension mechanism of the visa free regime. It is a horizontal provision which will apply to all visa-free countries and is not aimed at any specific country. It aims to remedy the weaknesses in the current legal framework by:

speeding up procedure; extending the possible grounds for suspension; making it possible for the Commission to trigger the mechanism.

Belarus

An EU migration mission visited Belarus in 2009. On 28 February 2011 the Council authorised the Commission to open negotiations on a Visa Facilitation Agreement and a Readmission Agreement with Belarus. The Commission submitted a formal invitation to the Belarusian authorities in June 2011 which was accepted in January 2014. The first technical negotiations took place in Minsk in June 2014, the second round in November 2014 in Brussels and the last round in March 2015 in Minsk. The results were encouraging, but progress was stalled as five MS voiced concerns regarding the security of the Belarussian diplomatic passports. The Commission offered to Belarus in May 2015 expert advice on security standards for diplomatic passports, and Belarus confirmed its interest only in February 2016. In March 2016 the Commission reiterated its invitation to start technical consultations.

In January 2017, a technical meeting took place in Brussels, where Belarus confirmed that it is taking measures to enhance the security of its travel documents, including diplomatic passports. Showing renewed willingness to continue the process, a new negotiating round is expected to take place in the second quarter of 2017. Also, the European Neighbourhood Instrument will fund a programme titled "Helping Belarus address the phenomenon of increasing numbers of irregular migrants" to support Belarus in migration management, including the smooth implementation of the future Readmission Agreement

Belarus and the EU signed on 13 October 2016 in the margins of the JHA Council the Joint Declaration on a Mobility Partnership. Currently, work is ongoing on the annex to the Joint Declaration.

Belarus has indicated that it would like to reinforce cooperation with EU agencies Europol, EASO, Cepol and Frontex, and if possible sign cooperation agreements with them.

(D) RUSSIA

Russia

The EU-Russia PCA came into force in 1997. Ministerial meetings for Freedom, Security and Justice area (PPC) were organised regularly until the Ukraine crisis. The Visa Facilitation and Readmission Agreements entered into force on 1 June 2007. On 11 April 2011 the Council adopted the mandate for the renegotiation of the Visa Facilitation Agreement. The Visa Dialogue was launched in 2007 and in this context, on 15 December 2011, the Parties agreed on a list of Common Steps which would need to be implemented before the talks on EU-Russia visa waiver agreement might be launched. In March 2014, in the context of the crisis in Ukraine, the EU decided to suspend bilateral talks with the Russian Federation on visa matters (Visa dialogue and amended VFA). Meetings under the Joint Visa Facilitation Committee and Joint Readmission Committee are continuing.

In May 2011 Russia and EU launched a Dialogue on Migration. The Dialogue focuses through experts' discussions and field visits on legal migration, migration and development, asylum and other forms of international protection, as well as on addressing irregular migration and trafficking in human beings. In the context of the crisis with Ukraine, the migration dialogue is continuing only at expert level, but without a work programme for 2015-2016 and 2017-2018. The Russian side has agreed that at this stage no senior official meetings of the migration dialogue will be held.

EU and Russia have established Senior Officials Meeting on JLS matters which should meet once a year and should constitute the bridge between experts level discussion and political contacts (JLS PPC). Meetings were discontinued following the start of the Ukraine crisis.

China

The EU-China comprehensive strategic partnership came into force in 2003. China signed an Approved Destination Status Agreement in 2004, facilitating the entry of Chinese tourists into EU Member States and including provisions on readmission. Formal negotiation of an EU readmission agreement, based on 2002 negotiating directives, has not started yet. Negotiation of a PCA, including an article on readmission and visa cooperation, started in 2007.

At the 14th EU-China Summit in February 2012 both sides agreed to explore the possibilities of facilitating mobility for Chinese and EU citizens, and strengthen cooperation on illegal immigration, as well as to pay special attention to the question of mutual visa exemption for holders of diplomatic passports. At the 16th EU-China Summit (20-21 November 2013), shared commitments were taken to reinforce the objectives in the 2020 Agenda. Following that, a Roadmap, which consists of a two-stage approach, was finalised during the 2nd meeting of the EU-China Migration and Mobility Dialogue (Beijing, 9 April 2015). The first stage of the Roadmap, which comprises the signature of the EU-China short stay visa waiver for holders of diplomatic passports, the permission for EU Member States to open Visa Application Centres in 15 Chinese cities and the first Expert meeting held in Beijing on 5 November 2015, is considered finalised. The implementation of the 2nd phase of the roadmap is currently on-going.

(G) UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Relations between the EU and the US have been formalised in 1990 in the Transatlantic Declaration, and further developed in the New Transatlantic Agenda which outlined a new framework for cooperation including a number of areas for joint action. An EU-US Joint Statement endorsed by the EU-US JHA Ministerial Troika in October 2009 (the so-called "Washington Statement") sets out common values and foundations of EU-US cooperation in the JHA area until 2014 and includes a commitment to enhance both political and operational cooperation in various JHA issues.

Further to this commitment cooperation has been developed on migration and asylum issues in the context of the EU-US Cooperation Platform on Migration and Refugee issues, launched in 2010. Activities include areas such as unaccompanied minors, biometrics, refugee resettlement, trafficking in human beings, development of capacity building for migration management in third countries and contribution of the Diaspora to the development of countries of origin of migration.

Part 3 - The global processes

GLOBAL FORUM FOR MIGRATION AND DEVELOPMENT

The GFMD is an initiative of the UN Member States to address the migration and development nexus in practical and action-oriented ways. It is an informal, non-binding, voluntary and government-led process.

The process emerged after the UN High-level Dialogue on International Migration and Development on 14-15 September 2006. The second High-level Dialogue on 3-4 October 2013 confirmed the GFMD as a valuable forum for holding frank and open discussions, which has helped to build trust among participating stakeholders.

The 8th GFMD Summit came immediately after the adoption of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, which includes migration as a recognised development enabler. During Turkey Chairmanship, an important feature was the insertion of forced displacement and refugees on the agenda, not the least due to the Syrian refugee crisis.

In December 2016, the 2016 Chair, Bangladesh, formally handed over the chairmanship to Germany and Morocco, who will jointly lead the process during 2017-2018.

Recent and upcoming events

UNITED NATIONS

The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on 25 September 2015 recognizes that migration contributes to circular growth and development. It calls on UN Member States to increase international cooperation by facilitating orderly, safe, regular and responsible migration and mobility of people. In this respect, the EU counts on a long-standing strategic partnership with the UN. The EU welcomes and will strongly support the implementation of the New York Declaration adopted at the UNGA High Level Plenary Meeting on Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants on 19/09/2016. In particular, the EU plans to play a strong role in the preparation processes for a Global Compact on Refugees and a Global Compact on Migrants.
