Fundamental Principles

While strengthening cooperation on preventing and combating irregular migration, the Requested and Requesting State shall, in the application of this Agreement to persons falling within its scope, ensure respect for human rights and for the obligations and responsibilities following from relevant international instruments applicable to the parties, in particular from:

- the 1948 Universal Declaration of the Human Rights;
- the 1950 European Convention on Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms and its protocols;
- the 1966 International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights;
- the 1984 UN Convention Against Torture;
- the 1951 Geneva Convention relating to the Status of Refugees and its Protocol of 1967.

The Requested State shall in particular ensure, in compliance with its obligations under the international instruments listed above, the protection of the rights of persons readmitted to its territory.

The Requesting State should give preference to voluntary return over forced return where there are no reasons to believe that this would undermine the return of a person to the Requested State.

SECTION III

READMISSION PROCEDURE

Article 7

Principles

1. Subject to paragraph 2, any transfer of a person to be readmitted on the basis of one of the obligations under Articles 3 to 6 shall require the submission of a readmission application to the competent authority of the Requested State.

2. If the person to be readmitted is in possession of a valid travel document and, in the case of third-country nationals or stateless persons, also a valid visa or residence permit of the Requested State, the transfer of such person can take place without the Requesting State having to submit a readmission application and, in the case of a national of the Requested State, without having to submit a written notification referred to in Article 12(1) to the competent authority of the Requested State.

3. Without prejudice to paragraph 2, if a person has been apprehended in an area which extends up to 15 kilometres from and including the territories of seaports and international airports, including custom zones, of the Requesting State after illegally crossing the border, coming directly from the territory of the Requested State, the Requesting State may submit a readmission application within two working days following that person's apprehension (accelerated procedure).

Article 8

Readmission application

1. To the extent possible, the readmission application is to contain the following information:

- (a) the particulars of the person to be readmitted (e.g. given names, surnames, date of birth, and — where possible — place of birth, and the last place of residence) and, where applicable, the particulars of minor unmarried children and/or spouses;
- (b) in the case of own nationals, an indication of the means of proof or prima facie evidence of nationality as set out in Annexes 1 and 2 respectively;
- (c) in the case of third-country nationals and stateless persons, an indication of the means of proof or prima facie evidence of the conditions for the readmission of third-country nationals and stateless persons as set out in Annexes 3 and 4 respectively;
- (d) a photograph of the person to be readmitted.

2. To the extent possible, the readmission application shall also contain the following information:

- (a) a statement indicating that the person to be transferred may need help or care, provided the person concerned has explicitly consented to the statement;
- (b) any other protection, security measure or information concerning the health of the person, which may be necessary in the individual transfer case.

3. A common form to be used for readmission applications is attached as Annex 5 to this Agreement.
4. A readmission application may be submitted by any means of communication including electronic ones e.g. fax, e-mails etc.

Article 9

Means of evidence regarding nationality

1. Proof of nationality pursuant to Article 3(1) and Article 5(1) can, in particular, be furnished through the documents listed in Annex 1, even if their period of validity has expired by up to 6 months. If such documents are presented, the Member States and Azerbaijan shall mutually recognise the nationality without further investigation being required. Proof of nationality cannot be furnished through false documents.
2. Prima facie evidence of nationality pursuant to Article 3(1) and Article 5(1) can, in particular, be furnished through the documents listed in Annex 2, even if their period of validity has expired. If such documents are presented, the Member States and Azerbaijan shall deem the nationality to be established, unless they can prove otherwise. Prima facie evidence of nationality cannot be furnished through false documents.
3. If none of the documents listed in Annexes 1 or 2 can be presented, or if they are insufficient giving duly motivated reasons, the competent diplomatic or consular representation of the Requested State concerned shall, upon a request from the Requesting State which is to be included in the readmission application, interview the person to be readmitted without undue delay at the latest within five working days of the requesting day, in order to establish his or her nationality.
4. The procedure for such interviews may be established in the implementing Protocols provided for in Article 20.

Article 10

Means of evidence regarding third-country nationals and stateless persons

1. Proof of the conditions for the readmission of third-country nationals and stateless persons laid down in Article 4(1) and Article 6(1) shall, in particular, be furnished through the means of evidence listed in Annex 3; it cannot be furnished through false documents. Any such proof shall be mutually recognised by the Member States and Azerbaijan without any further investigation being required.
2. Prima facie evidence of the conditions for the readmission of third-country nationals and stateless persons laid down in Article 4(1) and Article 6(1) shall, in particular, be furnished through the means of evidence listed in Annex 4; it cannot be furnished through false documents. Where such prima facie evidence is presented, the Member States and Azerbaijan shall deem the conditions to be established, unless they can prove otherwise.
3. The unlawfulness of entry, presence or residence shall be established by means of the travel documents of the person concerned in which the necessary visa or other residence permit for the territory of the Requesting State are missing. A statement by the Requesting State that the person concerned has been found not having the necessary travel documents, visa or residence permit shall likewise provide prima facie evidence of the unlawful entry, presence or residence.

Article 11

Time limits

1. The application for readmission must be submitted to the competent authority of the Requested State within a maximum of 6 months after the Requesting State's competent authority has gained knowledge that a third-country national or a stateless person does not fulfil, or no longer fulfils, the conditions in force for entry, presence or residence. Where there are legal or factual obstacles to the application being submitted on time, the time limit shall, upon request by the Requesting State, be extended but only until the obstacles cease to exist.

2. A readmission application must be replied to in writing within:
  - (a) two working days if the application is made under the accelerated procedure (Article 7(3));
  - (b) fifteen calendar days in all other cases.

This time limit begins to run from the date of confirmed receipt of the readmission request. If there is no reply within this time limit, the transfer shall be deemed to have been agreed to.

Reply to a readmission application may be submitted by any means of communication, including electronic ones e.g. fax, e-mails etc.

3. Reasons for the refusal of a readmission request shall be given in writing.
4. After agreement has been given or, where appropriate, after expiry of the time limits laid down in paragraph 2, the person concerned shall be transferred within three months. On request of the Requesting State, this time-limit may be extended by the time taken to deal with legal or practical obstacles.

Article 12

Transfer modalities and modes of transportation

1. Without prejudice to Article 7(2), before returning a person, the competent authorities of the Requesting State shall notify in writing at least three working days in advance the competent authorities of the Requested State regarding the transfer date, the point of entry, possible escorts and other information relevant to the transfer.
2. Transportation may take place by any means including by air or sea. Return by air shall not be restricted to the use of the national carriers of Azerbaijan or of the Member States and may take place by using scheduled or charter flights. In the event of escorted returns, such escorts shall not be restricted to authorised persons of the Requesting State, provided that they are authorised persons by Azerbaijan or any Member State.
3. If the transfer takes place by air, possible escorts shall be exempted from having to obtain the necessary visas.

Article 13

Readmission in error

The Requesting State shall take back any person readmitted by the Requested State if it is established, within a period of six months, and in case of third-country nationals or stateless persons, within 12 months, after the transfer of the person concerned, that the requirements laid down in Articles 3 to 6 are not met.

In such cases, the procedural provisions of this Agreement shall apply mutatis mutandis and all available information relating to the actual identity and nationality of the person to be taken back shall be provided.

2. Azerbaijan shall allow the transit of third-country nationals or stateless persons if a Member State so requests, and a Member State shall authorise the transit of third-country nationals or stateless persons if Azerbaijan so requests, if the onward journey in other possible States of transit and the readmission by the State of destination is assured.

3. Transit can be refused by Azerbaijan or a Member State:
  - (a) if the third-country national or stateless person runs the real risk of being subjected to torture, to inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, or to the death penalty or of being persecuted because of his or her race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group or political conviction in the State of destination or another State of transit; or
  - (b) if the third-country national or the stateless person will be subject to criminal sanctions in the Requested State or in another State of transit; or
  - (c) on grounds of public health, national security, public order or other national interests of the Requested State.
4. Azerbaijan or a Member State may revoke any authorisation issued if circumstances referred to in paragraph 3 subsequently arise or come to light which stand in the way of the transit operation, or if the onward journey in other possible States of transit, or the readmission by the State of destination, is no longer assured. In this case, the Requesting State shall take back the third-country national or the stateless person, as necessary and without delay.

Article 15

A common form to be used for transit applications is attached as Annex 6.

A transit application may be submitted by any means of communication including electronic ones e.g. fax, e-mails etc.

2. The Requested State shall, within five working days after receipt of the application and in writing, inform the Requesting State of the admission, confirming the point of entry and the envisaged time of admission, or inform it of the admission refusal and of the reasons for such refusal. If there was no reply within five working days, the transit shall be deemed to have been agreed to.

Reply to a transit application may be submitted by any means of communication including electronic ones e.g. fax, e-mails etc.

3. If the transit operation takes place by air, the person to be readmitted, and possible escorts, shall be exempted from having to obtain an airport transit visa.
4. The competent authorities of the Requested State shall, subject to mutual consultations, assist in the transit operations, in particular through the surveillance of the persons in question and the provision of suitable amenities for that purpose.
