HAVE ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

CHAPTER I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

Subject matter

1. This Regulation addresses situations of crisis, instrumentalisation and force majeure in the field of migration and asylum within the Union and provides for specific rules derogating from those set out in Regulations (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum and Migration Management] and (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedures Regulation], and in Directives XXX [recast Return Directive] and XXX/XXX [Reception Conditions Directive recast].

This Regulation shall not affect the fundamental principles and guarantees [established by the acts] from which derogations are allowed pursuant to this Regulation.

2. For the purposes of this Regulation, a situation of crisis is to be understood:
  - (a) an exceptional situation of mass influx of third-country nationals or stateless persons arriving irregularly in a Member State or disembarked on its territory following search and rescue operations, being of such a scale, in proportion to the population and GDP of the Member State concerned, and nature, that it renders the Member State's asylum, reception or return system non-functional and can have serious consequences for the functioning the Common European Asylum System or the Common Framework as set out in Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum and Migration Management] (hereinafter "crisis"), or
  - (b) an imminent risk of such a situation.

3. For the purposes of this Regulation, a situation of instrumentalisation of migrants is to be understood as a situation where a third country or non-state actor encourages or facilitates the movement of third country nationals to the external borders or to a Member State, with the aim of destabilising the Union or a Member State where such actions are liable to put at risk essential functions of a Member State, including the maintenance of law and order or the safeguard of its national security; (hereinafter “instrumentalisation”)

Member States may apply derogations provided for in a Council Implementing Decision referred to in Article 9(5) of this Regulation in a a situation of instrumentalisation only in respect of third-country nationals or stateless persons who are subject to instrumentalisation and who are either apprehended or found in the proximity of the external border, meaning the Member State’s land borders, including river and lake borders, sea borders and its airports, river ports, sea ports and lake ports, provided that they are not internal borders, in connection with an unauthorised crossing by land, sea or air, or who are disembarked following search and rescue operations or who have presented themselves at border crossing points.

CHAPTER II

DEROGATIONS APPLICABLE IN A SITUATION OF CRISIS, INSTRUMENTALISATION OR FORCE MAJEURE

Article 2

Registration of applications for international protection in a situation of crisis, instrumentalisation or force majeure

1. By way of derogation from Article 27 of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedures Regulation], applications shall be registered no later than four weeks after they are made in a situation of crisis or force majeure and no later than three weeks after they are made in a situation of instrumentalization.
2. Where applying paragraph 1 in a situation of instrumentalisation, the Member State concerned shall prioritise the registration of those applications [...] of persons with special reception needs as defined in [Reception Conditions Directive recast] [...] and [...] family members of minors. Member State concerned may also prioritise the registration of applications which are likely to be well founded. Member States concerned may prioritise such applications also in situations of crisis or force majeure.

Article 3

Measures applicable to the asylum border procedure in a situation of a situation of crisis, instrumentalisation or force majeure

1. In a situation of crisis or force majeure, by way of derogation from Article 41(b)(1) of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedures Regulation], Member States may not be required to examine in a border procedure applications made by applicants referred to in Article 40(1)(i) of that Regulation.

2. In a situation of crisis or force majeure, by way of derogation from Article 41(2)(b) of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedures Regulation], Member States may in a border procedure take decisions on the merits of an application in cases where the applicant is of a nationality, or, in the case of stateless persons, a former habitual resident of a third country, for which the proportion of decisions granting international protection by the determining authority is, according to the latest available yearly Union-wide average Eurostat data, 75% or lower, in addition to the cases referred to in Article 40(1) of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedures Regulation];
3. In a situation of instrumentalisation, by way of derogation from [Article 41(2)(a) and (b), Article 41(5) and Article 41(9)(a) of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedure Regulation], and in accordance with Article 41(13) and (14) of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedure Regulation]] Member States may decide at the locations at the external border, in the proximity to the external [...] border[...] or transit zones or if the Member State concerned cannot accommodate them in those locations in other designated locations within its territory on the admissibility and on the merits of all applications made by any third country national or stateless person registered within the period during which this point is applied.
4. Where applying paragraphs 2 or 3, the Member State concerned shall prioritise the examination of those applications for international protection [...] lodged by persons with special procedural or special reception needs as defined in [Reception Conditions Directive recast and in Asylum Procedure Regulation] [...] and [...] family members of minors]. The Member State concerned may also prioritise the examination of applications for international protection which are likely to be well-founded or manifestly unfounded.

5. In a situation of crisis, instrumentalisation or force majeure, by way of derogation from Article 41c(2) of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedures Regulation], the duration of the border procedure shall last no more than twenty weeks including appeal starting from the date of the registration of that application. [...] Following this period, the applicant shall be authorised to enter the Member State's territory for the completion of the procedure for international protection
6. In a situation of force majeure or instrumentalisation, by way of derogation from [Article 12(5) of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedure Regulation]] the [...] personal interview may be omitted also in case where the determining authority is able to take a positive decision on the basis of the evidence available with regard to the subsidiary protection status.

Article 4

Extension of time limits set out for take charge requests, take back notifications and transfers in a situation of a situation of crisis or force majeure

1. In a situation of crisis or force majeure by way of derogating from Articles 29,30,31 and 35 of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum and Migration Management] Member States shall
  - (a) submit a take charge request as referred to in Article 29 within four months of the date on which the application was registered;
  - (b) reply to a take charge request as referred to in Article 30 within two months of receipt of the request;

- (c) submit a take back notification as referred to in Article 31 within one month of receiving the Eurodac hit or confirm the receipt within one month of such notification;
  - (d) carry out a transfer as referred to in Article 35 within one year of the acceptance of the take charge request or of the confirmation of the take back notification by another Member State or of the final decision on an appeal or review of a transfer decision where there is a suspensive effect in accordance with Article 33(3) of that Regulation.
2. Where the Member State referred to in paragraph 1 does not comply with the time limits set out in paragraph 1, points (a), (b) and (d), the responsibility for examining the application for international protection pursuant to Regulation XXX/XXX [Asylum and Migration Management] shall lie with it or be transferred to it.
  3. Where, because of the persistence of the situation of crisis or of force majeure or for any other reason, the transfer does not take place within one year of the acceptance of the take charge request or of the confirmation of the take back notification by another Member State or of the final decision on an appeal or review of a transfer decision where there is a suspensive effect in accordance with Article 33(3) of that Regulation, by way of derogation from Article 35 of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum and Migration Management], the Member State responsible shall be relieved of its obligations to take charge of or to take back the person concerned and responsibility shall be transferred to the requesting or notifying Member State.
  4. In a situation of crisis, by way of derogating from Articles XXX of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum and Migration Management],

Article 5

Material reception conditions in a situation of a situation of crisis, instrumentalisation or force majeure

1. In a situation of crisis, instrumentalisation or force majeure, by way of derogation from [Articles 16 and 17(1), (2) point (c) and paragraphs (6) to (8) of Directive XXX/XXX [Reception Conditions Directive recast]], [...], the Member State may temporarily from the moment the application for international protection is made until registration and then for the maximum period as referred in Article 2(c) or from the moment the application for international protection is made until registration and then for the period as referred in [Article 41(11) of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedure Regulation]] in case derogation under Article 2(c) is not applied set other modalities for material reception conditions [...] in relation to applicants apprehended or found as a result of instrumentalisation according to this Regulation [...] or who have presented themselves at border crossing points. Member States shall cover the applicants' basic needs, in particular food, water, clothing, adequate medical care, and temporary shelter adapted to the seasonal weather conditions, and in full respect of human dignity. The derogation from [Article 17(2)(c) of Directive XXX/XXX [Reception Conditions Directive recast]] is without prejudice to the access of legal advisers in accordance with [Articles 8(4), 14(1) and 16(3) of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedure Regulation]] and the access of UNHCR in accordance with Article 18 of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedure Regulation]].

Article 6

Measures applicable to the return border procedure in a situation of crisis or instrumentalisation

1. In a situation of crisis or instrumentalisation,
  - (a) By way of derogation from Article 41a(2) of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedures Regulation], the maximum period during which third-country nationals or stateless persons shall be kept at the locations referred to in that Article may be prolonged by an additional period of maximum eight weeks;
  - (b) By way of derogation from Article 41a(7) of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedures Regulation], the period of detention set in that Article shall not exceed the period referred to in point (a);
  - (c) In addition to the cases provided for by Article 6(2) of Directive XXX [recast Return Directive], Member States shall establish that a risk of absconding is presumed in an individual case, unless proven otherwise, when the criterion referred to in Article 6(1), point (f) of Directive XXX [recast Return Directive] is fulfilled or when the applicant, third-country national or stateless person concerned is manifestly and persistently not fulfilling the obligation to cooperate established by Article 7 of that Directive.
2. Paragraph 1 shall also apply to applicants, third-country nationals and stateless persons subject to the procedure referred to in Article 41 of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedures Regulation] whose application has been rejected before the adoption by the Commission of a decision issued in accordance with Article 3 of this Regulation, and who have no right to remain and are not allowed to remain after the adoption of that decision.

SOLIDARITY MEASURES APPLICABLE IN A SITUATION OF CRISIS, INSTRUMENTALISATION OR FORCE MAJEURE

Article 7

[placeholder for support and solidarity measures in a situation of a situation of crisis or instrumentalisation ]

CHAPTER IV

PROCEDURAL RULES AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 8

Procedure in case of force majeure

1. Where a Member State is facing a situation of force majeure which renders it impossible to comply with specific rules from those set out in Regulations (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum and Migration Management] and (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedures Regulation], and in Directives XXX [recast Return Directive] and XXX/XXX [Reception Conditions Directive recast], that Member State shall notify the Commission.
2. Where a Member State referred to in paragraph 1 is no longer facing a situation of force majeure as referred to in that paragraph which renders it impossible to comply with specific rules from those set out in Regulations (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum and Migration Management] and (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedures Regulation], and in Directives XXX [recast Return Directive] and XXX/XXX [Reception Conditions Directive recast] that Member State shall, as soon as possible, notify the Commission of the termination of the situation. After such notification, the derogations shall no longer be applied.

Article 9

Authorisation procedure and adoption of implementing acts for crisis and instrumentalisation

1. A Member State [...] facing a situation of crisis or instrumentalisation [...], may, given those exceptional circumstances, request the authorisation to apply the relevant derogations provided for in Articles 2 to 7.
2. [...] Where the requesting Member State submits to the Commission conclusive evidence demonstrating the existence of the conditions referred to in Article 1(2) or Article 1(3), the Commission shall, on the basis of that evidence, without delay, make a proposal for an appropriate Council Implementing Decision referred to in paragraph 4 including the relevant derogations required for the specific situation.
3. The Commission may also make such a proposal where it considers it appropriate on the basis of [...] information provided by the requesting Member State and any other information available to it.
4. As a matter of urgency, the Council shall assess [...] the proposal [...] and depending on the outcome of such assessment adopt an Implementing Decision authorising the Member State concerned to apply the specific derogations provided for in Articles 2 to 7.
5. The Council Implementing Decision referred to in paragraph 4 shall state the grounds on which it is based, and shall set the date from which the rules laid down in Articles 2 to 7 may be applied, as well as the time period for their application, which shall not exceed an initial period of six months.

In case of instrumentalisation the Decision shall specify the third-country nationals or stateless persons subject to instrumentalisation.

6. The Commission and the Council shall keep the situation of crisis or instrumentalisation [...] under constant monitoring and review. Where the Commission considers it appropriate on the basis of relevant information, it may propose the repeal of the Council Implementing Decision referred to in paragraph 4 or the adoption of a new Council Implementing Decision authorising the amendment or prolongation [...] of the specific derogations referred to in Articles 2 to 7 for a period, which shall not exceed an additional period of six months. Where the requesting Member State submits conclusive evidence to the Commission demonstrating the continued existence of the conditions referred to in Article 1(2) or (3), the Commission shall, on the basis of such evidence, submit a proposal for a new Council Implementing Decision to amend or prolong the specific derogations referred to in Articles 2 to 7 for a period, which shall not exceed an additional period of six months. The Member State concerned shall provide the Commission specific information needed for it to carry out this review and to make the proposal for repeal or prolongation as well as any other information the Commission may request.
7. Member States shall continue for the the maximum period as referred to in Article 5 to apply the procedural derogations set out in the Council implementing decision referred to in paragraph 4 in respect of those applicants whose applications for international protection have been registered within the period during which those derogations may be applied until a final decision is taken on their application or until the third-country nationals or stateless persons concerned are returned in accordance with Article 5.
8. In exercising their powers and carrying out their responsibilities pursuant to this Article, the Commission and the Council shall ensure at all times that the principle of proportionality is respected.

Article 10

Specific provisions and guarantees

1. In a situation of instrumentalisation, where applying the derogations referred to in Articles 2 to 7, the Member State concerned shall duly inform third-country nationals or stateless persons in a language which the third-country national or stateless person understands or is reasonably supposed to understand about the measures applied, the location of the registration points, including the border crossing points, accessible for registering and lodging an application for international protection, and the duration of the measures. Information may be provided via information panels, this being without prejudice to [articles 8 and 19(2) of Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedure Regulation]].
2. The extension of the time limit for registration of applications for international protection in accordance with Article 2 is without prejudice to [the obligations to comply with the deadlines set out in Article 10(1)(b) of [Regulation on EURODAC]].
3. The derogations in accordance with Article 2 do not affect the process of determining the Member State responsible within the framework of [Asylum and Migration Management]. In case the process of determining the Member State responsible is longer than the maximum duration of the emergency asylum procedure, the process shall be completed in the territory of the determining Member State.
4. The Member State facing a situation of instrumentalisation [...] shall not apply Articles 2 to 7 longer than what is strictly necessary to address the situation of instrumentalisation [...], and in any case, no longer than the period set out in the Council Implementing Decision referred to in 5.

Article 11

Cooperation and assessment

1. The Commission, relevant European Union institutions and agencies and the Member State facing a situation of crisis or instrumentalisation [...] shall closely cooperate and regularly inform each other on the implementation of the derogations and measures referred to in Article 7. The Member State concerned shall continue reporting all relevant data including statistics that are relevant for the implementation of this Regulation, via the EU Migration Preparedness and Crisis Management Network.
2. The Member State facing a situation of crisis or instrumentalisation [...] shall maintain [...] close cooperation with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and any other [...] organisations entrusted by the Member State [...] with tasks [...] in accordance with this Chapter and [...] Regulation (EU) XXX/XXX [Asylum Procedure Regulation] and Directive XXX/XXX [Reception Conditions Directive recast].

Article 12

Entry into force

This Regulation shall enter into force on the twentieth day following that of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Union.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in the Member States in accordance with the Treaties.
