

EUROPE'S BUDGET

Home Affairs Funds: Migration Borders Security

JULY 2025

The Commission is proposing EUR 81 billion in the area of Home Affairs to make Europe safer and more secure, to equip the EU with stronger external borders and to implement a fair and firm migration management system. This triples funding compared to the previous budget period.

Why is this a priority?

Migration is a global phenomenon and a common European challenge that requires European solutions and engagement.

Strong external borders are essential to manage migration and protect the EU against hybrid and other security threats.

The EU's security landscape affects the lives of citizens, our societies and our economies.

What is the Commission proposing?

The Commission is proposing to increase funding for:

- Migration and Asylum
- Border Management
- Internal Security

EU Agency for Asylum (EUAA) - 2,28
 EU Agency for the Operational Management of Large-Scale IT Systems (EU-Lisa) - 3,83
 EU Agency for Law Enforcement Training (CEPOL) - 0,11
 EU Drugs Agency (EUDA) - 0,31
 EU Centre to prevent and counter child sexual abuse - 0,13

All amounts in EUR billion

How will the budget make a difference in this area?

It will enable Member States to:

Implement the Pact on Migration and Asylum, as regards the external and internal dimensions, with faster asylum procedures, stricter rules to prevent abuse, monitoring of fundamental rights and more effective returns.

Fully digitalise border control management, better equip border guards and increase cooperation with third countries.

Equip law enforcement authorities with modernised capabilities to fight terrorism and organised crime both online and offline.
