Subject:	EU Action on Migratory Pressures - A Strategic Response 5th Biannual Update

I. INTRODUCTION

The "EU Action on Migratory Pressures - A Strategic Response" was approved by the JHA Council at its meeting on 26-27 April 2012¹.

According to the methodology agreed by SCIFA/Mixed Committee (doc. 6443/13), Presidencies are responsible for coordinating the follow-up to the EU Action and its updating on a biannual basis, while SCIFA/Mixed Committee is to provide the strategic oversight of the implementation of the key actions under the Strategic Priorities. Individual Member States are encouraged to volunteer to monitor Strategic Priorities or elements within them.

Since the second part of 2012, the updating process has been undertaken by each Presidency and SCIFA/Mixed Committee has reverted to this issue regularly.

II. FIFTH BI-ANNUAL UPDATE OF THE EU ACTION ON MIGRATORY PRESSURES

For the purpose of the fifth biannual update of the EU Action, delegations were invited to provide their input in writing by 6 October 2014 on the implementation of relevant activities under seven Strategic Priority areas of the EU Action.

On the basis of the contributions received by delegations, the Commission, FRONTEX and EASO, the Presidency prepared a preliminary version of the updated EU Action (doc. 15284/14), which was introduced at the SCIFA/Mixed Committee meeting on 14 November 2014.

The Presidency, taking into account earlier requests by delegations, also restructured slightly the format of the document to make it more readable, concise and standardized. In order to avoid overlapping, the Strategic Priority Area 7 (Preventing illegal immigration from and via the Southern Mediterranean countries) included a cross reference to the activities related to the Task Force Mediterranean and the Council Conclusions adopted by the October 2014 JHA Council.

Delegations were invited to comment in writing on the preliminary version of the updated EU Action (doc. 15284/14) by 1 December 2014. On the basis of the preliminary version of the updated EU Action and the comments received by delegations, the Commission and FRONTEX, the Presidency has prepared a consolidated version of the updated EU Action with a view to its endorsement by SCIFA/Mixed Committee at its meeting on 12 December 2014.

Taking into account that input by delegations into the updating process of the EU Action has been declining steadily during the last several rounds, further reflection on the working methods, IT tools and document structure will be needed during the forthcoming Presidencies. A more concerted effort should be sought for this useful methodological tool to reach its optimal potential and to feed into the policy making at the EU level.

As regards the Strategic Priority Area 7 (Preventing illegal immigration from and via the Southern Mediterranean), further reflection will be required in order to find modus operandi with the reporting and follow-up of the activities of the Task Force Mediterranean.

Further work will also have to be undertaken on certain proposals that need further consideration and could not be included in this round of updating of the EU Action, in particular those regarding developing a common European resettlement policy.

III. DEVELOPMENTS AS REGARDS MIGRATORY PRESSURES SINCE THE FOURTH BI-ANNUAL UPDATE OF THE EU ACTION ON MIGRATORY PRESSURES

The following summary aims at presenting the main new developments and actions taken in the framework of the EU Action on migratory pressures in the last 6 months and thus is not meant to be a comprehensive state of play of this policy area. Moreover, given the limited number of contributions received from delegations during this round of the updating process, the summary might present only a partial view of the real situation on the ground.

Certain general trends stand out in the analysis of the developments over the last six months. In terms of progress achieved, there is a noticeable general positive trend, but it is not reflected evenly in all priority areas. While several new actions had been initiated under priority 1, the lack of new initiatives or developments in several other priority areas is noticeable. Moreover, institutional actors at the EU level seemed to have played the most active role. Finally, the EU cooperation with Turkey has featured significant progress, as reflected in the Priority Area 3.

Strategic Priority 1 - Strengthening cooperation with third countries of transit and origin on migration management

Frontex has started a new programme in collaboration with EASO and other partners under IPA II. This programme will aim at implementing a wide range of activities related to migration management in the Western Balkans and in Turkey. The agency also launched a capacity-building project with the cooperation of international organizations to ensure border security and facilitate legitimate movements of persons and goods at the borders of the EU and within the Eastern Partnership countries.

With regards to the situation in Syria, the Regional Development and Protection Programme in the Middle East has been launched, and activities are currently being rolled out.

In the framework of the Mobility Partnership with Moldova, a project on bilateral cooperation of health institutions between Moldova and other countries has been launched, in order to promote circular migration of health workers.

With regards to Serbia, Hungary is currently finishing its capacity-building project and launched this summer joint border patrols with Serbia. The Common Contact Point between those two countries has been operational since July 2014.

The setting up of a network of EU MS Liaison Officers in Libya, dedicated to gain intelligence on trafficking of human beings and smuggling of migrants has been launched under the EU Policy Cycle -Empact OAP for 2014, but is currently on hold due to the worsening of the situation in Libya. Included in the Empact OAP for 2015, it will resume as soon as the conditions allow.

Regarding cooperation with Belarus, progress is ongoing and the third round of negotiations for the conclusion of a readmission agreement will take place next year. The process to draft a Mobility Partnership with Belarus will be started as well.

The latest Joint Readmission Committee with Pakistan was positive, and the state of implementation of the EU Readmission Agreement (EURA) with this country will continue to be monitored.

Cooperation on returns is also expected to be improved with Pakistan, Bangladesh and Nigeria with the elaboration of a pilot project with these countries.

Finally, the Seahorse Mediterranean Network is being prepared according to the plan by Member States, and efforts are made to encourage North African countries to join.

Cooperation between agencies and third countries has been further developed, with the signature of a cooperation agreement between Moldova and Eurojust as well as the signature of an operational agreement between Serbia and Europol. Negotiations for a strategic partnership agreement between Europol and Georgia are ongoing.

Strategic Priority 2 - Enhanced border management at the external borders

The Annual Programme of the Schengen Committee was adopted in October.

With regards to the Smart Borders package, the Commission initiated a proof of concept in February, and presented its outcomes in October. A pilot project will be carried out in 2015 by eu-LISA.

Strategic Priority 3- Preventing illegal immigration from Turkey

Frontex and Turkey launched a set of analytical activities, which in 2014 focused on information exchange, data quality and joint reporting.

Sweden also launched a capacity-building initiative to improve migration management in Turkey.

A Swedish-led Prague Process Pilot Project has been initiated and is being implemented. It focuses on providing trainings in asylum and international protection.

A cooperation plan between Frontex and Turkey has been established. Several activities will be implemented until 2016, notably in the areas of risk analysis and training.

Contacts with Turkey are ongoing regarding the secondment of a Liaison Officer to Europol to be stationed at the Embassy of Turkey in the Netherlands, in the framework of the existing cooperation agreement between Europol and Turkey.

Regarding the implementation of the EU Readmission Agreement (EURA) with Turkey, a protocol between Turkey and Bulgaria is under preparation.

With regards to cooperation with Turkey, the JHA Council of June 2014 concluded that major recommendations of the Schengen evaluation reports were followed up. Significant improvements were noted, in particular at land borders.

Strategic Priority 4- Better tackling of abuse of legal migration channels

Visa dialogue with Turkey and visa liberalisation Action Plans with Kosovo, Georgia and Ukraine are on-going.

Strategic Priority 5- Safeguarding and protecting free movement by prevention of abuse by third country nationals

The Commission adopted in September 2014 a handbook addressing marriages of convenience between EU citizens and non-EU nationals, prepared in cooperation with Member States in the framework of the FREEMO expert group.

The Commission also presented in October an anti-trafficking package, including a mid-term Report on the Implementation of the EU Strategy towards the Eradication of Trafficking in Human Beings 2012-2016, a second Eurostat working paper on THB, and a report on the Implementation of Directive 2004/81/EC.

Strategic Priority 6- Enhancing migration management, including cooperation on return practices

With regards to the Employer's Sanction Directive, the Commission adopted its first report on its implementation in May 2014. If necessary, the Commission will launch an EU pilot project.

The Commission is also preparing a "Return Handbook", compiling common guidelines, best practices and recommendations to be used by Member States when carrying out return-related activities.

Strategic Priority 7- Preventing illegal immigration from and via the Southern Mediterranean

Developments under this Strategic Priority are covered in the Task Force Mediterranean-(TFM) related documents, in particular the Communication by the Commission on the Task Force Mediterranean of June 2014 (doc. 10067/14), as well as the JHA Council Conclusions of October 2014 that build on the work done by the TFM (doc. 14141/14 + 16222/14).

IV. CONCLUSIONS

At its meeting on 12 December 2014, the SCIFA/Mixed Committee will be invited to endorse the updated document "EU Action on Migratory Pressures - A Strategic Response", as set out in the Annex, and take note of the reflections and observations in this note, which could serve as the basis for further proceedings under the incoming Presidencies.
