ACTION AND PROGRESS UNDER THE MIGRATION PARTNERSHIP FRAMEWORK JUNE 2016 - JUNE 2017

The European Union engages in regular political dialogue with Nigeria and supports efforts to improve economic, political and social development. In recent years, the EU has also stepped up its support for those displaced by violence and terrorism in Nigeria through its humanitarian aid programmes. The EU signed a Common agenda for Migration and Mobility (CAMP) with Nigeria in March 2015, during which an open and constructive dialogue was held. Nigeria is a priority country under the Partnership Framework and dialogue and political cooperation has been stepped up significantly. In March 2016, at a Ministerial Dialogue in Brussels, the Parties agreed to take necessary steps to launch negotiations for an EU-Nigeria Readmission Agreement and the first negotiation meeting took place in October 2016. A Ministerial meeting in the course of September 2017 (dates to be confirmed) will allow for a deepening of the ongoing dialogue and taking stock of the progress achieved.
