This Regulation establishes a mechanism for the purposes of providing rapid technical and operational assistance to a requesting Member State facing a situation of particular pressure, especially the arrivals at points of the external borders of large numbers of third country nationals trying to enter illegally into the European Union, in form of Rapid Border Intervention Teams. The Regulation also defines the tasks to be performed by guest officers and members of the Rapid Border Intervention Teams during operations in a Member State other than their own.

1. This Regulation establishes a mechanism for the purposes of providing rapid [...] operational assistance for a limited period to a requesting Member State facing a situation of urgent and exceptional pressure, especially the arrivals at points of the external borders of large numbers of third country nationals trying to enter illegally into the territory of the Member State, in the form of Rapid Border Intervention Teams. This Regulation also defines the tasks and powers to be performed by [...] members of the Rapid Border Intervention Teams during operations in a Member State other than their own.

2. This Regulation amends Regulation (EC) 2007/2004 pursuant to the establishment of the mechanism as referred to in paragraph 1 and in view of defining the tasks to be performed and powers to be exercised by border guards of the Member States participating in joint operations and pilot projects in another Member State.

3. Necessary technical assistance to a requesting Member State is to be provided in accordance with Articles 7 and 8 of Regulation (EC) No 2007/2004.
Article 1A

Scope

This Regulation shall apply without prejudice to the rights of refugees and persons requesting international protection, in particular as regards non-refoulement.

Article 1a

Scope

This Regulation shall apply without prejudice to the rights of refugees and persons requesting international protection, in particular as regards non-refoulement.

CHAPTER I

Rapid Border Intervention Teams

Article 2

By way of derogation from paragraph 2, while performing their tasks, guest officers may carry service weapons, ammunition and equipment as authorised according to the home Member State’s national law. However, the host Member State may prohibit the carrying of certain weapons, ammunition and equipment, provided its own legislation includes the same provisions for its own border guards. Member States shall, in advance of the deployment of the guest officers, inform the Agency of the permissible service weapons, ammunition and equipment and of the conditions for their use. The Agency shall make this information available to Member States.</td>
