Subject: Draft Decision of the European Parliament and of the Council on the list of travel documents entitling the holder to cross the external borders and which may be endorsed with a visa and on setting up a mechanism for establishing this list

I - INTRODUCTION

On 12 November 2010, the Commission tabled a proposal for a draft Decision on the list of travel documents entitling the holder to cross the external borders and which may be endorsed with a visa and on setting up a mechanism for establishing this list. The purpose of the proposal is to set up a mechanism to ensure that the list of travel documents issued by third countries is constantly updated, to establish a centralised mechanism for the technical assessment of such travel documents and, finally, to ensure that Member States express their position in relation to the recognition or non-recognition of these documents.

This proposal has been discussed several times in the Visa Working Party as well as by the JHA Counsellors.

At the JHA Counsellors meeting on 3 May 2011, the Presidency submitted doc. 9466/11 VISA 84 FRONT 56 CODEC 697 COMIX 281 containing a compromise text of the draft Decision. The outcome of this meeting as well as of the Visa Working Party on 18 May is set out in the Annex. The amendments to the text in the second column as already agreed by the Working Party/JHA Counsellors appear in bold (the text of Recital 11 concerning Denmark has been adapted as the standard clause to be used for that Member State has changed since the entry into force of the Treaty of Lisbon).

Subject to a general reservation by DE on the whole text of the draft Decision, the only outstanding issue is the consequence of the absence of notification by a Member State on the recognition or not of travel documents (see item II below).

On 12 April 2011, the Committee on Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs of the European Parliament (LIBE) had an orientation vote on the proposal.

Coreper/Mixed Committee is invited to examine the outstanding issue set out below with a view to reaching agreement with the European Parliament.

II - OUTSTANDING ISSUE SUBMITTED TO COREPER

Article 4(1) of the draft Decision provides that after the Commission has communicated the list of travel documents, Member States shall notify to the Commission their position on recognition or non recognition of the travel documents.

During the negotiations a legal gap has been identified: What should happen if a Member State fails to notify its position on recognition or non-recognition of the travel document within the deadline referred to in paragraph 1?

There are two possible options to tackle this issue:

- 1) option 1: stating that the travel document concerned is deemed to be recognised until the Member State's notification on its non-recognition ("positive presumption");
- 2) option 2: stating that the travel document concerned is deemed to be non-recognised until the Member State's notification on its recognition ("negative presumption").

During the previous discussions and at the JHA Counsellors meeting on 3 May 2011, a suggestion by the Presidency to retain the first option ("positive presumption") was supported by a large majority of delegations and the Commission. However, five delegations (DE/AT/CY/PT/IT) could not accept this solution.

However, as Portugal lifted its reservation at the Visa Working Party on 18 May 2011, the actual text of the draft Decision can now be supported by a sufficient majority.

During the discussions, the Council Legal Service (CLS) expressed the view that the text proposed by the Presidency on Article 4(1) fully respects the competence of Member States regarding the recognition of travel documents issued by third countries. Furthermore, CLS emphasised that for the sake of legal security for travellers and to facilitate the work of border guards and consular staff it is necessary to fill the legal vacuum with a presumption, and that the choice to be made between the positive and the negative presumption is not a legal but a political one.

LIBE is also in favour of including a positive presumption in order to fill the legal vacuum identified. On 10 May 2011, following the JHA Counsellors meeting, the Presidency briefed the Rapporteur during an informal meeting on the state of play of the discussions in the Council. The Rapporteur was still strongly in favour of a positive presumption. All the other changes to the Commission's proposal agreed in the Council (second column in the Annex) were accepted by the Rapporteur, while all other amendments resulting from the orientation vote on 12 April in LIBE (third column in the Annex) were acceptable to the Council. Furthermore, LIBE envisages to adopt its report on the proposal on 15 June 2011.

Consequently, the Presidency strongly believes that the best basis for a compromise which is acceptable to both the Council and the Parliament is option 1 ("positive presumption"). In order to have the broadest possible support for this option at the Council and to reach a swift agreement with the Parliament, the Presidency once again invites delegations having a reservation (DE/AT/CY/IT) on this option to reconsider their position and to accept Article 4(1) as set out in the second column of the Annex. It is in this regard noted that Recital 6 makes it clear that the mechanism does not preclude Member States to notify a change of their position in any given moment, and that Article 1(3) provides that the Decision does not affect Member States' competence for the recognition of travel documents.

III - CONCLUSION

In light of the above, Coreper is invited to agree on the text set out in the Annex with a view to reaching an agreement with the European Parliament at the next informal trialogue which is envisaged for 1 June 2011.

	(2a) The purpose of the list of travel documents is twofold: on the one hand it allows border control authorities to verify whether a given travel document is recognised for the purpose of crossing the external borders as set out in Article 5 (1)(a) of Regulation(EC) No 562/2006 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 March 2006 establishing a Community Code on the rules governing the movement of persons across borders (Schengen Borders Code); on the other hand it allows consular staff to verify whether Member States recognise a given travel document for the purpose of affixing the visa sticker.¹
(3) Under Article 48 (1) (c) of Regulation (EC) 810/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July 2009 establishing a Community Code on Visas² an exhaustive list of travel documents issued by the host country should be drawn up within local Schengen cooperation.	(3) Under Article 48 (1) (c) of Regulation (EC) 810/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July 2009 establishing a Community Code on Visas³ an exhaustive list of travel documents issued by the host country should be drawn up within local Schengen cooperation.

DE has a general reservation on the whole proposal.

(4) A mechanism should be established to ensure that the list of travel documents is constantly updated and to allow for a common technical assessment, where appropriate, of the listed travel documents and place an obligation on Member States to express their position on the recognition and non-recognition of these documents.	(4) A mechanism should be established to ensure that the list of travel documents is constantly updated (...).
	(4a) Considering the relevance of the security of the travel documents with regard to their possible recognition, where appropriate, the Commission, assisted by experts of the Member States, should provide a technical assessment.
(5) Member States are and should remain responsible for the recognition of travel documents for the purpose of allowing the holder to cross the external borders and affixing a visa.	(5) Member States are and should remain competent for the recognition of travel documents for the purpose of allowing the holder to cross the external borders and affixing a visa.	(5) Member States are and should remain competent for the recognition of travel documents for the purpose of allowing the holder to cross the external borders and affixing a visa.

Since a Member State's failure to notify its position with regard to a travel document may cause problems to holders of this travel document, a mechanism should be established to place an obligation on Member States to express their position on the recognition and non-recognition of these documents. This mechanism does not preclude Member States to notify a change of their position in any given moment.
	(6a) An online database containing specimens of all travel documents should be established in the long term to facilitate the examination of a given travel document by border control authorities and consular staff. This database should be kept up to date in line with any changes as referred to in Article 4(3) of this Decision.	(6a) An online database containing specimens of all travel documents should be established in the long term to facilitate the examination of a given travel document by border control authorities and consular staff. 	(7a) For information purposes, the Commission should draw up a non-exhaustive list of known fantasy and camouflage passports, brought to its attention by the Member States. The fantasy and camouflage passports which are on the list are not subject to recognition or non recognition. They do not entitle their holder to cross the external borders and may not be endorsed with a visa.
